

Explanation

Originally, the work was written for narrator and piano. The four added wind instruments give additional colour to the piece, in the spirit of the magnificent works Poulenc wrote for wind instruments and piano: several duo-sonatas, the trio for oboe, bassoon and piano, and the sextet for wind quintet and piano. The score in the download described above gives a translation of the original French text into Dutch.